ionolulu's Irrepressible and Almost Irresistible Democrat Buoyant Even In Defeat; Is Happy In Knowledge That He Went Down In Losing Fight With Vice President As His Companion,

By Ernest G. Walker.

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.) WASHINGTON, May 6 .- Vice Chairman Charles Barron is shaking the dust of political Washington from his footies, "without regrets," as he himself says, and is proceeding buck to Honolulu in high feather. He asserts that he is not a bit sore because he lest the Honololu postmustership. Judeed he is very buoyant, because he and Postmanter W. F. Young are very close and are going to work for the reorganization of the Honoluia postoffice. According to the vice-chairman, he and Postmaster Young will give the incompetent ones short shrift, and ger haps make it uncomfortable for Repub-

The vice-chairman dined with the new postmaster tonight. They also saw Postmaster General Burleson today and talked about the things to be done to the Honolulu postoffice. Barron, according to his own version, is to have some say about patronage in the post-office, but remarks that the postmaster general indicated, in case of any doubt-as to what should happen, Postmaster Young's word must be absolutely first The new postmaster is leaving at opce for Spartanburg, South Carolina, from which place he and Mrs. Young, who is an invalid, and their fourteen yearold daughter will leave for Honolulu, sailing from San Francisco May 20, so that Mr. Young can assume charge of the postoffice at the end of the month.

"I am going because there is nothing left for me to do here," said the vice chairman today. "You see they are going to let me fill the other feducation of said of the type feet along side for or said offices in Hawaii. Do you get that? I have had a two hours' talk with Secretary McAdoo. He has a man in mind for collectur of customs. No, I can't tell you his name. Mr. McAdoo naised me not to. The man is the one I recommended. It is too bad. I wish I could fell. He is also going to name a collector of internal revenue, but I can't tell you positively who that will be. There are three men under consideration. They are J. J. Smiddy, Cyrus T. Greene and Palmer Woods. Barron Pledged to Secrety.

Greene seems to have the inside, President Wilson twice," continued the vice-chairman, "and yesterday I had a long talk with Attorney General McReynolds, There was a stenographer present, and we went over a lot of things. I think Corren of Hile is eliminated from the judgeshin, and that Harry Irwin is practically eliminated.

You know throughout the United States for many I had twenty-seven senators with me, and Vice-President Marshall and Representative Kent of California and to bring Hoablute postoffice to a high forty seven other congressmen. It to bring Honolula postonice to a dropped in to see the Vice-President state of efficiency, which it has been today. He said to me: Barron, I respected that you be nominated past. I congratulate the people of Honoruseted that you be nominated past. quested that you be nominated post-n aster at Honolulu, but they did not name you. It is the only nomination I have asked of this administration. By gum, Barron, you and the Vice-President have gone down together.

Will Turn Out Incompetents. "Yes, Postmaster Young and I pre pose to turn out the incompetents in the Honolula postoffice. Incidentally I will give you a piece of news. They are sending a new postoffice inspector to Honolulu, in place of Hare. He is inspector Knight. Postmaster and Mrs. Young, I can also tell you, intend to live at Waikiki beach.

The vice-chairman alluded with pride

"How vain all the talk of universal peace! Look at the war-madness all about us. Everybody blathering for action, getting ready to callst, singing the untional anthem, throwing out his chest. Bombastic interviews in the paper with would be warriors, cheering the flag at the theater. A democracy is as crazy for war as any other government. ernment.

The Cause of War.

The Cause of War.

"And the war comes with a peace man as secretary of state, and with a mother as President. Why does it come! Because of a matter of silly punctille, because some one won't sainte the fing. We'll fight for that, but not for outrages much more real. We'll fight the man we wouldn't recognize—which amounts to recognition. We were going to watch him crumble away, before we'd recognize him, but he didn't crumble. And the fact that in intermational we'd recognize him, but he didn't crum-ble. And the fact that in international law we should have recognized him and de facto the head of the state only made us the madder. Any little excuse comes in pat to justify us in action. And the war is on. Blood has been shed as the result of this fine Calvin-istic jesuitry. And everybody is given the war is on present a few research the war is on except a few peace cranks who can't be heard for the thunder of the enutains and the short-ing of the mob who want to go marche ing to Mexico. God Knows When We Will Come Out.

Our troops are in Mexico. Oh, we're only going to set things streight there. God knows when our troops will come out of Mexico. In war there are always things coming up to keep our force in the field. We'll have to govern Mexico, and we may never let go. All for an 'insult,' when we wouldn't intervene to punish for crimes against life and property. Pecksniff patriotism, I would say.

What Are We Going to Do?

"But what are we going to do? We can't go back on our country. We must have the enemy. That it is to be particitic, don't you know. It is the way of the political world. A war flurry, a little spat, is always a strong card for the party in power. It offsets a growing attitude of criticism among the public. In the war-clamor certain measures may be dropped with-cut the dull thad being noticed. Not much chance for reform at home while wa're at way abroad

Why the Was Is Bad.

"The war is bad. It is the worse for that it's a quibiling war. It distracts our attention from the economic war in Colorado, where soldiers are shooting down strikers in the Rocke-feller mines. It is the worse because before its shrill magnificence the "four furies" anti-trust bills begin already to fade away. "But what President wouldn't have committee be appointed to act in con-other might have managed it less subtly? Not one. And what is more unun-imously popular about Wilson than his war for the flag? Nothing. Everybody wallows in the baptime of blood.

"What's the use of talking about abolishing war? The people are for it first, last and all the time. Don't you believe it? Look in your newspapers, at the crowds in the theater harken to the talk in the street cars.

'Miss Henrietta Petowker will now recite 'The Blood Brinker's Burial.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Fnaucial America prints an interview with a know a great deal concerning the rail way situation and the rate advance question, and who has followed the proceedings relative to the latter matter with much care, makes the follow-Green ing predictions as to the rate decision.

I expect the full five per cent to go in on all class rates very quickly; com modity rates not vigorously protested to go in either at once or a little later; such commodity rates as are at all formally contested to be postponed; lake and rail rates, either denied or modified-these, at present, in preserving differentials, standing more chun a six per cent advance; special hearings ordered on certain unremunerative commodity rates, possibly sugar, some steel products and the packing
